

2nd Conference on Historical Bibliographies

Programme

September 15th:

- Address of welcome and introduction (Christoph Cornelißen)

- Short reports on important improvements of various national bibliographies (approx. 10 minutes each):
 - + Royal Historical Society Bibliography on British History (Ian Archer)
 - + Historische Bibliographie (Renate Plichta)
 - + Bibliografie dějin Českých zemí (Václava Horčáková, Kristina Rexová)
 - + Bibliografia Storica Nazionale (Agostino Bistarelli)
 - + Österreichische Historische Bibliographie (Martha Jauernig)
 - + Irish History Online (Frank Cullen)
 - + Jahresberichte für deutsche Geschichte (N. N.)
 - + Repertorium Geschiedenis Nederland (Ronald Sluijter, Sebastiaan Derks)
 - + Bibliografia historii polskiej za rok (Stanislaw Jędryka)

- Presentation of bibliographies which have not been part of the first conference (approx. 20 minutes each):
 - + Lietuvos istorijos bibliografija (Irena Tumelyte)
 - + Dansk Historisk Bibliografi (Jakob Meile)

- Revising the concept of a historical bibliography (approx. 20 minutes each):
 - + Bibliografie der Schweizergeschichte (Karin von Wartburg)
 - + Bibliographie annuelle d'histoire de France (Brigitte Keriven, Claude Ghiati)

- Presentation of a concept for a joint website of European historical bibliographies (approx. 10 minutes / Dirk Petter)

- Dinner

September 16th:

- Connecting bibliographical and biographical information (approx. 20 minutes / Gregor Horstkemper)

- Organisation and structures of a forthcoming European historical bibliographies union
 - + The consortium of German regional bibliographies and their metasearch engine “Virtuelle Deutsche Landesbibliographie” (approx. 20 minutes / Ludger Syré)
 - + The Porta Historica Network, or: How to build an international consortium of historical bibliographies (approx. 20 minutes / Ronald Sluijter, Sebastiaan Derks)
 - + Discussion

- Information on the application procedure for EU funding (approx. 20 minutes / N. N.);

- Lunch

- Discussion on following conferences, further common action and concrete steps.